

Table of Contents

Introduction	3
1 What is a Memory Book Project?	7
Who can Benefit from a Memory Book Project? Conducting a Memory Book Project; What Not to Expect
2 Getting Started	11
Selecting a Topic; Setting Goals; Making a Schedule
3 Personnel	17
The Project Director; The Steering Committee; Contributors; Other Volunteers
4 Creating, Publishing, and Using the Workbook	23
The Workbook Outline; Subtopics and Questions; Illustrations; Memory Sparking Ideas; Sending Out the Workbooks; On-Line Workbooks
5 Ensuring Success	39
Staying Organized; Encouraging Participation; Participant Gatherings
6 Collecting Photos, Images, and Artifacts	45
Scanning Days; Images from Contributors Who do not Live Nearby; Ensuring Good Scans; After Scanning Days; Other Ways to Acquire Images; Learn More About Scanning
7 Creating the Memory Book	55
Transcription; Choosing Stories and Images; Editing/Proofreading; The Introduction; Conclusion; Bios of Contributors; Layout and Design; Printing; Binding
8 Creating an Exhibit and Other End Products	65
A “Big Book,” A Children’s Book; Public Readings by Participants; Exhibit; Traveling Exhibits; Web Sites and CD-ROMs; Remembrance Trunks; Educational Materials; Archiving for Research
9 Funding Your Project	71
Funding Sources; Applying for Grants; Public and Private Grants; Other Fundraising Ideas; One More Idea

Appendix A: Reproducible Planning Worksheets	77
Appendix B: Topic Ideas	89
Appendix C: Encouraging Participants to Write	91
Appendix D: Memory Book Projects for Children	93
Appendix E: Resources	95

Figure 1-1: Oral History and Memory Book Projects: A Comparison	10
Figure 2-1: Suggested Memory Book Project Schedule	14–15
Figure 3-1: Sample Contributor Selection Worksheet	19
Figure 3-2: Steering Committee Meeting Agenda Items	21
Figure 4-1: Sample Timeline	26
Figure 4-2: Sample Neighborhood Map	27
Figure 4-3: Sample Community Map	28
Figure 4-4: Sample Floor Plan	29
Figure 4-5: Sample Introductory Letter	31
Figure 4-6: Sample Question Page	32
Figure 4-7: Sample Page Explaining the Kinds of Images Wanted	33
Figure 4-8: Sample Page Explaining How to Submit Stories and Images	34
Figure 4-9: Sample Referrals Page	35
Figure 4-10: Sample Biography Page	36
Figure 4-11: Sample Release Form	37
Figure 5-1: Sample Progress Report to Contributors	41
Figure 5-2: Memory Book Participant Gatherings	44
Figure 6-1: Samples of Scanned Photographs	46
Figure 6-2: Scanning Days Room Layout	47
Figure 6-3: Sample Page from a Thumbnail Catalog	51
Figure 6-4: Sample Release and Log of Scanned Images	52–53
Figure 7-1: Sample Transcription Method 1	57
Figure 7-2: Sample Transcription Method 2	57
Figure 7-3: Portrait and Landscape Page Layouts	61
Figure 8-1: “Big Book” Display Case	66
Figure 8-2: Children’s Memory Book	67
Figure 8-3: Memory-sparking Notebooks for Exhibits	68
Figure 8-4: Simple Travelling Exhibit	69
Figure 8-5: Sample Remembrance Trunk Items	70
Figure 9-1: Sample Budget for a Memory Book Project	72
Figure 8-2: Sample Letter to Potential Business Sponsors	75